

MENTORING: Information Guide[©]

This guide is a user-friendly primer on Mentoring for all levels in an organization. It is designed for all audiences including: Mentors, Mentees (Proteges) Managers, Program Coordinators, Program team members, and sponsors.

It is distributed during the Initial phase of a Mentoring Program to inform and educate the applicant population on the topic of Mentoring and help to dispel common myths and misconceptions. The booklet contains two Readiness Questionnaires, one for Mentors and the other for Mentees. These help potential participants assess their readiness for a mentoring experience.
